NOTICE

Ref: DU Press Release/Office Order Dt. 19-03-2020; GNCTD/HFWD Order No. 2698-2712, & DHE Communication No. 880-884, both dated 19.03.2020; DoPT Memorandum dated 19-03-20; & related College Communications

Sub: Closure of the College till 31st March

In pursuance of the College WhatsApp message dated 19th March, University of Delhi Press Releases and other Government communications referred as above, the college shall remain closed till 31st March 2020. The teaching and non-teaching staff and other concerned etc. should work from home, as applicable. They should remain available on telephone and through other electronic means (e.g. E-mail, WhatsApp etc.). However, those particularly from the non-teaching staff, who have not given their contact details, are directed to give immediately those details to the Sr.PA (9810485929) for ensuring the smooth and regular communications.

All concerned should attend the office, if called for on any exigency of work. They are advised to recall/review work pendency of their seat and ensure that all emergent and time-bound works etc. are completed; and, if so required, are handled, dispatched and distributed accordingly. The computer lab staff shall remain in touch with SNA.

Teachers are requested to be in touch directly with their students through online means of communications including electronic, digital etc. to handle their teaching and related matters. Students are also advised to maintain online/telephonic contact with their teachers for studies and related purposes.

The essential/emergency services including security shall remain operational and the genuine concerns of such staff will be taken care of.

All concerned are requested to regularly visit the college website and be in constant touch with their TICs, and Sectional Heads, as applicable.

A HUMBLE REQUEST: At this critical juncture, given the outbreak of the Covid-19, let us be truly affectionate, sympathetic and cooperative to one & all. Be appreciative of the public health services and further unite ONLINE to strengthen our human bond to contribute to the national welfare. Let us also perform our official duties online (as applicable) with dedication in the larger interest of college community and the University. May God Bless All.

Principal, G K Arora
