Delhi University

Date: 03.08.2026

Subject: Request for Participation of All Students under Delhi University for National Students Paryavaran Competition (NSPC) From 15th July 2026 to 15th Sep 2026.

Climate change is increasingly becoming a global challenge and already the world has started seeing catastrophic results in various forms such as increased frequencies of cyclones, floods, cloud bursts, forest fires, etc. As per UN data, Climatic changes have already caused over 150,000 deaths annually world over. It is now well comprehended by all the Nations that unless emphasis is made and actions are taken to control the climate degeneration, the world will face irreversible catastrophic damage.

Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi (PSG):

Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi is an organization dedicated to improving the environment. 500+ districts with volunteers pan India are part of this organization. The aim of the organization is to make tangible and measurable changes to improve the quality of the environment through various activities and awareness campaigns.

NSPC at a Glance:

The organization has grown leaps and bounds achieving phenomenal results making it a success story. We were pleasantly surprised to acknowledge that 118 foreign countries participated in the competition.

We took baby steps in organizing the National Students Paryavaran Competition (NSPC) online in the year 2022.

In the year 2025 more than 1,25,000 Educational institutes and more than 15,47,000 students participated. The icing on the cake was that 118 foreign countries also participated in this completion. This year we are expecting much more participation than the previous three years.

Aims & Objectives of the Program:

1. Har Ghar Nursery.
2. To foster understanding among young individuals and the general public regarding the intricate complexities of the imminent threats posed by unchecked climate destruction.
